Re: *CS Docket No. 00-30; In the Matter of Applications of America
Online, Inc. and Time Warner, Inc. for Transfers of Control*
Notice of Ex Parte Communication

Dear Ms. Salas:

This letter provides notice that David Lawson and the undersigned, counsel to AT&T Corp., today had a conversation with Darryl Cooper of the Cable Services Bureau concerning the impact of the AOL-Time Warner merger on the instant messaging ("IM") marketplace.

In particular, it was noted that the merger of AOL and Time Warner would enhance AOL's ability and incentive to discriminate against both AOL's IM competitors and content-based Internet applications that compete, or potentially compete, with Time Warner content. It was also noted that because the merger would make it more difficult for AOL's IM rivals to compete on the merits, the merger would greatly increase the likelihood that the IM marketplace will remain irreversibly tipped to AOL.
